

TRAINING, CPD + CONFERENCES

NOVEMBER 2018

- Our full day CPD courses typically start at 9.30am and finish at 3.45pm.
- Our half-day sessions are typically 2½ – 3 hours long and can be delivered as morning, afternoon or twilight sessions.
- Our action research programmes are for advanced learners and typically include pre-course reading and tasks, preceding the first of two full day sessions. Our tutor provides remote support for the self-directed action research projects carried out in participants' schools or settings, and the final full day session takes place around 6 – 8 weeks after the first full day session.
- Our workshop sessions are generally tailored to your timings, but typically would be 1 – 2 hours long.
- Our keynote addresses are typically 30 – 90 minutes long.
